Introduction:

2000 years ago the greatest event in history took place – the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

The men who wrote about this event were eyewitnesses.

“That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked at and our hands have touched – this we proclaim concerning the Word of Life.” 1 John 1:1

Sadly, just like there are people who deny the truth of the holocaust, there are some in our world who deny the truth of the resurrection.

I. Tell the world Jesus is risen!
Acts 2:22-32

The Day of Pentecost is also called the Feast of Weeks or Feast of Harvest. Pentecost commemorated both the giving of the Law and the gift of the harvest.
On that day, God poured out his Holy Spirit.
“All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues (languages) as the Spirit enabled them.” Acts 2:4
These men are not drunk. What you are seeing is the fulfillment of Scripture.

We are living in the last days. This is a day of harvest.
“And everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.” Acts 2:21
But how will they hear unless someone tells them?

Peter told them about Christ and the resurrection. Verses 22-32
Jesus was a man just like us.
But Jesus was more than a man.
When Jesus died it was according to the will and purpose of God.

People need to hear the story about Christ today.
“These things are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.” John 20:31

Tell the world Jesus is Risen!

II. Tell the world Jesus is Lord!
Acts 2:33-41

Where is Jesus today?
He is seated at the right hand of God the Father in heaven.
Take them to the Scriptures.
Psalm 110:1
How could the Messiah be David’s son and David’s Lord?
Peter answers that Jesus is both.
Jesus is the Messiah.
Jesus is Lord.

When you know the truth it gives great conviction.
“Facts are stubborn things.” John Adams
The Apostles were willing to die for the truth of the resurrection.

“Therefore God exalted him to the highest place and gave him the name that is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.” Philippians 2:9-11

Conclusion:
The more that I study the Bible the more amazed I am by the truth and the power of God’s Word. There is no other book like it.

“If our Lord said, frequently, with great definiteness and detail, that after he went up to Jerusalem he would be put to death, but on the third day he would rise again from the grave, and this prediction came to pass, then it has always seemed to me that everything else that our Lord ever said must also be true.” Wilbur M. Smith

Jesus is both Lord and Christ!
What shall we do?
Turn away from your sin. That's repentance. Turn to Christ in faith for salvation. Be baptized as an evidence of the commitment you have made.
